PEMBROKE, N.C. - The UNC Pembroke men's basketball squad eliminated the Armstrong Atlantic State University men's basketball team from postseason contention with an 89-64 Peach Belt Conference victory on Saturday afternoon in Pembroke, N.C.

The Braves (16-10, 10-6 PBC) clinched their own spot in the upcoming Peach Belt Conference Championships with the victory, while the Pirates (10-14, 6-10 PBC) suffered their fourth loss in a row. With just two games left, the Pirates are three games out of fourth place in the East Division standings.

Armstrong led throughout the first 15 minutes of the game, taking a slim one-point lead, 29-28, on a Chris Vanlandingham jumper with 4:41 left in the first half. UNC Pembroke, however, ended the half on a 12-0 run to take an 11-point lead, 40-29, into the break.

The Braves scored the first seven points of the second half to build an 18-point advantage and the Pirates never got back within single digits the rest of the way.
